

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF IOWA
CEDAR RAPIDS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JONATHAN JAMES TOOMER,

Defendant.

No. 18-cr-50-LTS

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

On November 2, 2018, the above-named defendant appeared before the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge by consent and, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, pleaded guilty to Counts 1 and 3 of the Indictment: Conspiracy to Distribute Methamphetamine Within 1000 Feet of a Protected Location, in Violation of 21 U.S.C. Section 841(a)(1), 841(b)(1)(A), and 860(a); and Possession a Firearm by a Drug User, in violation of 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(3) and 924(a)(2). After cautioning and examining Defendant under oath concerning each of the subjects mentioned in Rule 11, I determined that Defendant's decision to plead guilty was knowledgeable and voluntary, and the offenses charged were supported by an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential elements of the offenses. I therefore RECOMMEND that the Court ACCEPT Defendant's guilty plea and adjudge Defendant guilty.

At the commencement of the Rule 11 proceeding, I placed Defendant under oath and explained that if Defendant answered any question falsely, the Government could prosecute Defendant for perjury or for making a false statement. I also advised Defendant that in any such prosecution, the Government could use against Defendant any statements made under oath.

I then asked Defendant a number of questions to ensure Defendant had the requisite mental capacity to enter a plea. I elicited Defendant's full name, age, and extent of education. I also inquired into Defendant's history of mental illness; use of illegal and/or prescription drugs; and use of alcohol. From this inquiry, I determined Defendant was not suffering from any mental disability that would impair Defendant's ability to make a knowing, intelligent, and voluntary guilty plea.

Defendant acknowledged receipt of a copy of the Fourth Superseding Indictment and further acknowledged that Defendant had fully discussed the Fourth Superseding Indictment with Defendant's counsel. Defendant acknowledged that Defendant had fully conferred with Defendant's counsel prior to deciding to plead guilty and that Defendant was satisfied with counsel's services.

I fully advised Defendant of all the rights Defendant would be giving up if Defendant decided to plead guilty, including the following:

1. The right to assistance of counsel at every stage of the case;
2. The right to a speedy, public trial;
3. The right to have the case tried by a jury selected from a cross-section of the community;
4. That Defendant would be presumed innocent, and would be found not guilty unless the Government could prove each and every element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt;
5. That Defendant would have the right to see and hear all of the Government's witnesses, and Defendant's attorney would have the right to cross-examine any witnesses called by the Government;

6. That Defendant would have the right to subpoena witnesses to testify at the trial, and if Defendant could not afford to pay the costs of bringing these witnesses to court, then the government would pay those costs;
7. That Defendant would have the privilege against self-incrimination: i.e., Defendant could choose to testify at trial, but need not do so; if Defendant chose not to testify, then the Court would instruct the jury that it could not draw any adverse inference from Defendant's decision not to testify; and
8. That any verdict by the jury would have to be unanimous.

I explained that if Defendant pleaded guilty, Defendant would be giving up all of these rights, there would be no trial, and Defendant would be adjudged guilty just as if Defendant had gone to trial and a jury returned a guilty verdict against Defendant.

- Plea Agreement

I determined that Defendant was pleading guilty pursuant to the Third Memorandum of a Proposed Plea Agreement between the United States Attorney's Office and Defendant ("the plea agreement"). After confirming that a copy of the written plea agreement was in front of Defendant and Defendant's counsel, I determined that Defendant understood the terms of the plea agreement. I summarized the plea agreement, and made certain Defendant understood its terms.

- Dismissal of Charge

I explained that the plea agreement provides for dismissal of Count 2 of the Indictment if Defendant pleads guilty to Counts 1 and 3, and that a district judge will decide whether or not to accept the plea agreement. If the district judge decides to reject the plea agreement, then Defendant will have an opportunity to withdraw the guilty plea and instead plead not guilty.

- Elements of Crime and Factual Basis

I summarized the charges against Defendant, and listed the elements of the crimes charged. I determined that Defendant understood each and every element of the crimes, and Defendant's counsel confirmed that Defendant understood each and every element of the crimes charged. For the offenses to which Defendant was pleading guilty, I elicited a full and complete factual basis for all elements of the crimes charged in the Indictment. Defendant's attorney indicated that the offenses to which Defendant was pleading guilty were factually supported.

- Sentencing

I explained to Defendant that the district judge will determine the appropriate sentence at the sentencing hearing using the advisory United States Sentencing Guidelines to calculate Defendant's sentence. I explained that the sentence imposed might be different from what the advisory guidelines suggested it should be and may be different from what Defendant's attorney had estimated. I also explained that because a mandatory minimum sentence applies, the sentencing judge cannot sentence Defendant to a sentence below ten years in prison on Count 1, which is the statutory mandatory minimum, even if the judge wants to.

I explained that a probation officer will prepare a written presentence investigation report and that Defendant and Defendant's counsel will have an opportunity to read the presentence report before the sentencing hearing and will have the opportunity to object to the contents of the report. I further explained that Defendant and Defendant's counsel will be afforded the opportunity to present evidence and be heard at the sentencing hearing.

I advised Defendant of the consequences of the guilty plea, including the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment on Count 1; the maximum terms of imprisonment; the mandatory minimum term of supervised release on Count 1; the maximum terms of supervised release; and the maximum possible fines. Specifically, I advised Defendant that Count 1 of the Indictment is punishable by a mandatory minimum sentence of not less than 10 years in prison and is punishable by (1) up to life in prison without the possibility of parole; (2) a period of supervised release following prison of ten years to life; and (3) a fine of not more than $20,000,000. I further advised Defendant that if the Court finds Defendant has three previous convictions for a violent felony or a serious drug offense, or both, committed on occasions different from one another, then pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(e)(1), Count 1 of the Indictment is punishable by a mandatory minimum sentence of 15 years in prison without the possibility of parole, and the following maximum penalties: (1) not more than life in prison without the possibility of parole; (2) a period of supervised release following prison of not more than five years; and (3) a fine of not more than $250,000.

Count 3 of the Indictment is punishable by (1) up to ten years in prison without the possibility of parole; (2) a period of supervised release following prison of not more than three years; and (3) a fine of not more than $250,000.

Because there are multiple counts, the sentences could be run consecutively for a maximum sentence of life imprisonment, a fine of $20,250,000, $200 in special assessments, and a lifetime of supervised release.

I explained that the Court will impose conditions of supervised release, and that if Defendant violates a condition of supervised release, then the Court could revoke Defendant's supervised release and require Defendant to serve all or part of the term of supervised release in prison, without credit for time previously served on supervised release.

I advised Defendant that regardless of the sentence imposed, there would be no possibility of parole. I also advised Defendant that the Court will impose a mandatory special assessment of $100.00, which Defendant must pay. I advised Defendant of the collateral consequences of pleading guilty. Defendant acknowledged understanding all of the above consequences.

I also explained that both the Government and Defendant have the right to appeal Defendant's sentence.

Defendant confirmed that the decision to plead guilty was voluntary; was not the result of any promises; and was not the result of anyone threatening, forcing, or pressuring Defendant to plead guilty. I explained that after the district judge accepts Defendant's guilty plea, Defendant will have no right to withdraw the plea at a later date, even if the sentence imposed is different from what Defendant anticipated.

Defendant confirmed that Defendant still wished to plead guilty, and Defendant pleaded guilty to Counts 1 and 3 of the Indictment.

I find the following with respect to the guilty plea:

1. Defendant's plea is voluntary; knowing; not the result of force, threats or promise; and Defendant is fully competent.
2. Defendant is aware of the minimum and maximum punishment for the counts to which he pleads guilty.
3. Defendant knows of and voluntarily waives Defendant's jury trial rights.
4. There is a factual basis for the plea.
5. Defendant is guilty of the crimes to which Defendant pleaded guilty.

- Forfeiture

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(b)(1), I found that the Government established the requisite nexus between Defendant's offense and the following items:

- a) $44,407 in cash seized from Defendant's safe on January 16, 2018^{3F};
- b) $9,980 in United States currency and various foreign currency seized from Defendant's camper on January 16, 2018;
- c) $9,520 in cash seized from Defendant's vehicle and $569 in cash seized from Defendant's person on May 1, 2018;

- d) a $20,000 money judgment, which represents additional gross proceeds of the methamphetamine distribution conspiracy directly attributable to Defendant; and
- e) a Smith & Wesson SD40 pistol.

I recommend the Court enter a preliminary forfeiture order pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(b)(2).

I explained that the Parties have fourteen (14) days from the filing of this Report and Recommendation to file any objections to my findings, and that if no objections are made, then the district judge may accept Defendant's guilty plea by simply entering a written order doing so. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Crim. P. 59(b). But see, United States v. Cortez-Hernandez, 673 Fed. App'x 587, 590-91 (8th Cir. 2016) (per curiam) (suggesting that a Defendant may have the right to de novo review of a magistrate judge's recommendation to accept a plea of guilty even if no objection is filed). The district court judge will undertake a de novo review of the Report and Recommendation if a written request for such review is filed within fourteen (14) days after this Report and Recommendation is filed.

DONE AND ENTERED at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, this 5th day of November, 2018.

Mark A. Roberts
United States Magistrate Judge
